INVESTIGATION OF NEW YORK CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS

It is Charged That Many of the Children's Homes Are Unfit.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 18.—A sweeping investigation of the management and control of the stae's charitable and correctional institutions was ordered tonight by Governor Whitman. To carry on the investigation he appointed Charles H Strong of New York as a special commissioner. Mr. Strong was directed to direct an inquiry into the administration of the state board of chartles, the office of the fiscal supervisor of state charities, the sites, buildings and ground commissites, buildings and ground commis-sion, the Building Improvement Commission and the salary classification commission, all of which have to do with the care of the state's wards.

The investigation was ordered after Acting Mayor McAneny of New York had sent to the governor a copy of a report recently made by John A. Kingsbury, commissioner of public charities of New York city, in which he asked for an investigation of the taste charities bearing. state charities boards. The report criticized the management methods of the state board and declared many of the children's institutions which ceived approval of the board were un-fit properly to care for inmates.

GENERAL ORGANIZER I. W. W. WIRES PRESIDENT WILSON Pledging Himself to Obtain "the True Story" of Hillstrom.

Boston, Nov. 18.—Joseph J. Ettor, general organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, tonight wired President Wilson pledging himself to obtain from Joseph Hillstrom, who is under sentence of death in Utaha, "the true story" of his whereabouts at the time of the murder, if the execution of Hillstrom were delayed. Ettor said that he was prepared to go to Utah immediately to fulfill his pledge.
